

NURSES (ENTREVISTAS EN CANARIAS EN JUNIO)

*Are you looking for a professional adventure abroad?
Would you like to have a stable job in a reputable NHS hospital?*

If the answer is yes, look no further.

HCL Permanent in association with Eures Spain is looking for qualified European nurses willing to take on a new, professional challenge in the UK.

Whether you've been working as a nurse for several years or just a few months and if you're willing to live in a busy city or in the countryside we have a suitable permanent job for you. HCL Permanent is proud to work closely with a number of public NHS hospitals across the country and we're confident that we can find the right role for you. All we require from you is to be NMC registered or be in the process of becoming NMC registered.

As the ideal candidate you will be registered (or be in the process of becoming registered) at the Nurse and Midwifery Council (NMC), you will have six months' minimum acute hospital experience in your own country and possess an good command of written and verbal English (B2).

Pick and choose when and where you want to work: The flexibility of the roles we have will allow you the Freedom to direct your career. With opportunities across the UK you can choose to stay in some of the most amazing cities working in prestigious hospitals. You'll also be entitled to:

- Minimum hourly pay of £16 per hour or £30,000 (€36,000)
- Enhanced pay when working nights and weekends
- Guaranteed full time work (37 hours a week)
- £300 (approx. €350) relocation package (subject to terms and conditions)
- A full training and induction program including a thorough introduction to working in the NHS – paid for by HCL Workforce Solutions
- Full support from our recruitment and clinical team during your time working for us

If you meet the above criteria, I'll contact you to discuss your experience, find out exactly what you're looking for and inform you about the offers matching your experience and skills. I will also help you prepare for the interview and assist you throughout the recruitment process to make sure you'll get your ideal job.

We will be the Canary Islands in June to meet the candidates in person and discuss the opportunities further. We will be conducting clinical interviews.

To find out more, and book an interview in Canary islands contact us today:
ewa.karczewska@hclpermanent.com con copia a eures-tenerife.martin@sepe.es

HCL Nursing is one of the UK's leading suppliers of qualified nurses, theatre nurses and operating department practitioners (ODPs). With positions including general medical, surgical and critical care specialties in the public healthcare sector, HCL Nursing has opportunities in hospitals throughout the UK.

